

Senator Walter Rand Institute for Public Affairs

Newsletter

Volume 7-2 February 2016

IN THIS ISSUE:

- Top Stories
- Spotlight
- WRI in the News

Top Stories

Denise Morrison, 2016 South Jerseyan of the Year \(Private Sector\)

WRI will honor the Campbell Soup CEO at its annual Awards and Scholarship Dinner. Read More.

WRI's Karen Rosado Attends Celebration of MLK's Legacy

On January 18th, Gateway Community Action Partnership sponsored a community event honoring the life of Dr. King. Read More.

South Jersey Communities Recognized for Improvement in School Breakfast

WRI's Paul Smith brief on the latest data for South Jersey counties regarding schools serving free breakfast. Read More.
Changes in Property Value and Property Tax in South Jersey from 2013 to 2014

Graduate Assistant Spencer T. Clayton's brief on new data for property value and taxes in South Jersey. Read More.

Spotlight

WRI welcomes Michael Medina, a second-year graduate student in Criminal Justice.

Matt Galey has joined the Cumberland County Prevention Project. He is a Junior triple majoring in Political Science, Criminal Justice, and Philosophy with plans on attending law school after graduation.

Shelby Tucker joins WRI, a first-year graduate student in Criminal Justice. She is an officer in the Rutgers-Camden Criminal Justice organization as well as an EMT, volunteer firefighter, and councilwoman in her hometown.

WRI In the News

Cumberland County Technical Students Design New Logo for CCPYDC

The Cumberland County Positive Youth Development Coalition unveiled its new logo last month, chosen from a pool of nine submissions by local students. Read More.

Save the Date!!

The 15th Annual Walter and Leah Rand Awards & Scholarship Dinner is coming on April 28, 2016