

Senator Walter Rand Institute for Public Affairs

Newsletter

Volume 7-1 January 2015

IN THIS ISSUE:

- Top Stories
- Spotlight
- WRI in the News

Top Stories

WRI Makes Its Mark On Rutgers Giving Day

On December 1, the Rand Institute made a strong showing in the first annual Rutgers Giving Day. Read More.

WRI Hosts Seminar with New Jersey Community Capital

On November 20th, WRI hosted a presentation for New Jersey Community Capital, a nonprofit community development financial institution on their latest project, THRIVE. Read More.

WRI Hosts Mixer at Cooper River Distillers

On November 20th, members of the Rand Institute's Advisory Board had the opportunity to spend some time with students and staff at Cooper River Distillers. Read More.

Spotlight

WRI welcomes Lauren Snow who will be assisting on the Cumberland County Prevention Project. She will be completing her Master of Public Administration at Rutgers-Camden in May 2016.

Reid Hlavka is a senior psychology major who is currently assisting on the South Jersey Strengthening Families Initiative Evaluation, working closely with Senior Project Coordinator Jim Morgante.

WRI In the News

Tracy Swan among United Way's Newest Officers

WRI's Senior Project Administrator, Tracy Swan, who will serve as Local Board Chair for United Way of Greater Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey. Read More.

Save the Date!!

The 15th Annual Walter and Leah Rand Awards & Scholarship Dinner is coming on April 28, 2016