

Senator Walter Rand Institute for Public Affairs

Newsletter

Volume 7-3 March 2016

IN THIS ISSUE:

- Top Stories
- Spotlight
- WRI in the News

Top Stories

Assemblyman Louis Greenwald, 2016 South Jerseyan of the Year \(Public Sector\)

WRI will honor the New Jersey Assemblyman and Majority Leader at its annual Awards and Scholarship Dinner. Read More.

WRI Launches Burlington County Juvenile Delinquency Prevention Effort

On February 25th, Tracy Swan and Karen Rosado hosted an official launch with Burlington County leaders. Read More.

Live Healthy Salem County: Cultivating Wellness in Salem County

A report from WRI's Paul Smith on a coalition of Salem County organizations addressing issues of health in the community. Read More.

Spotlight

WRI welcomes Caitlin Boehmcke, a first-year in the MA in Criminal Justice program at Rutgers-Camden. She will be serving as a facilitator to the Greater Bridgeton Area Breakout Group for the Cumberland County Prevention Project.

Brian Slusarz joins WRI as a Project Assistant working on the Burlington County Juvenile Prevention Project. He has a Bachelor's degree in Psychology and is currently a graduate student at Rutgers, pursuing a Master's in Public Policy and Administration.

Kurt Schmenger comes to WRI following time as an English teacher in Madrid and a Health Outreach Worker for Hispanic Farm Workers. He has a BA in Psychology from Lehigh University and MA in Experimental Psychology from Appalachian State University. He is a Project Coordinator working with the Strengthening Family Initiatives.

WRI welcomes Angelyce Purnell as our new Project Coordinator. She graduated with a BA in Spanish from Temple University, and is currently working with WRI's Strengthening Families Initiative.

The 15th Annual Walter and Leah Rand Awards & Scholarship Dinner will be held on April 28, 2016 at Campbell Soup Headquarters.

Those interested in attending, please contact Monica Rears at msk62@camden.rutgers.edu for tickets. Click here for more information.